

Class of '96 – SVEI's 1st Batch Alumni Meet

Class of '96 – Sree Vidyanikethan Educational Institution's 1st Batch Alumni Meet was magnificently organized on 23rd October, 2016 in Dasari Auditorium, SVEC Campus, Tirupati. Dr. M. Mohan Babu, Chairman, Sree Vidyanikethan Educational Trust presided over the function.

Dr. M. Mohan Babu, chairman of SVET, had expressed immense pleasure and happiness to associate with the alumina and expressed his best wishes for Deepawali festival ahead. He advised the Alumni to serve their parents and the members of the family and extend a helping hand to the poor and deserving students. He inspired them with examples of success stories. Never a Leader will be self-centric and he wished the alumni to be such inspiring leaders.

Later, the Alumni were served with splendid lunch. Post-Lunch, they visited SVIS campus where they started their professional journey with Sree Vidyanikethan. Further, they stopped over all the labs in the various Institutions to witness the growth of Sree Vidyanikethan in the last 16 years. Their feelings were flying in high spirits after observing the progress.

Alumni, in their lengthy interaction with the students of SVEI, they encouraged students to improve their communication skills, so as to improve their confidence levels; to spend more time in reading books to gain strong technical knowledge. They gave suggestions to the questions asked by students on achieving goals, career development & management. The students were cheerful in having interaction with their super seniors.

Alumni expressed heartfull gratitude to the Chairman, Management and Coodinators for planning and executing a meet exclusively for them. They also felt that the efforts put by the members in gathering the alumni and making the event a grand success was just incredible and the same should be continued.
