

GUEST LECTURE ON CURRENT HEALTH PROGRAMME IN INDIA

Sree Vidyanikethan college of nursing organized a guest lecture on Current health programmes in India on 15-2-2019 between 10am-12.00pm at Dasari Auditorium by Dr. G. Kalyan Chakravarthy, MD, Community medicine, medical Superintendent, CHC, Naravaripalli, nearly 180 nursing students and 20 faculty members attended the Lecture.

Welcome address by Ms. I.Sruthi, tutor, SVCN

Speaker elucidated about current health programmes in both the state and the central levels like Pradhan Manthri Surakshit Matritwa Abhiyan (PMSMA), Mukyamanthri e-I kendram, e-Subcenter, current diagnostic machine like CBNNAT to detect tuberculosis and Refampicin resistance with high accuracy within two hours, current Anti tuberculosis Drug “Delamanid” is now available in India.

Dr. G. Kalyan Chakravathy delivering a lecture on current health programmes

Dr. G. Kalyan Chakravathy interacting with the group

Dr. Dhana Sekhar insisted on Universal Immunization schedule and Dr. A. Sindhura, MS (obstetrics & Gynecology) gave awareness of Immunization for Adolescent girls and boys like Human Papilloma Vaccine to prevent infections and six types of Cancers and Importance of MMR vaccine for teenagers.

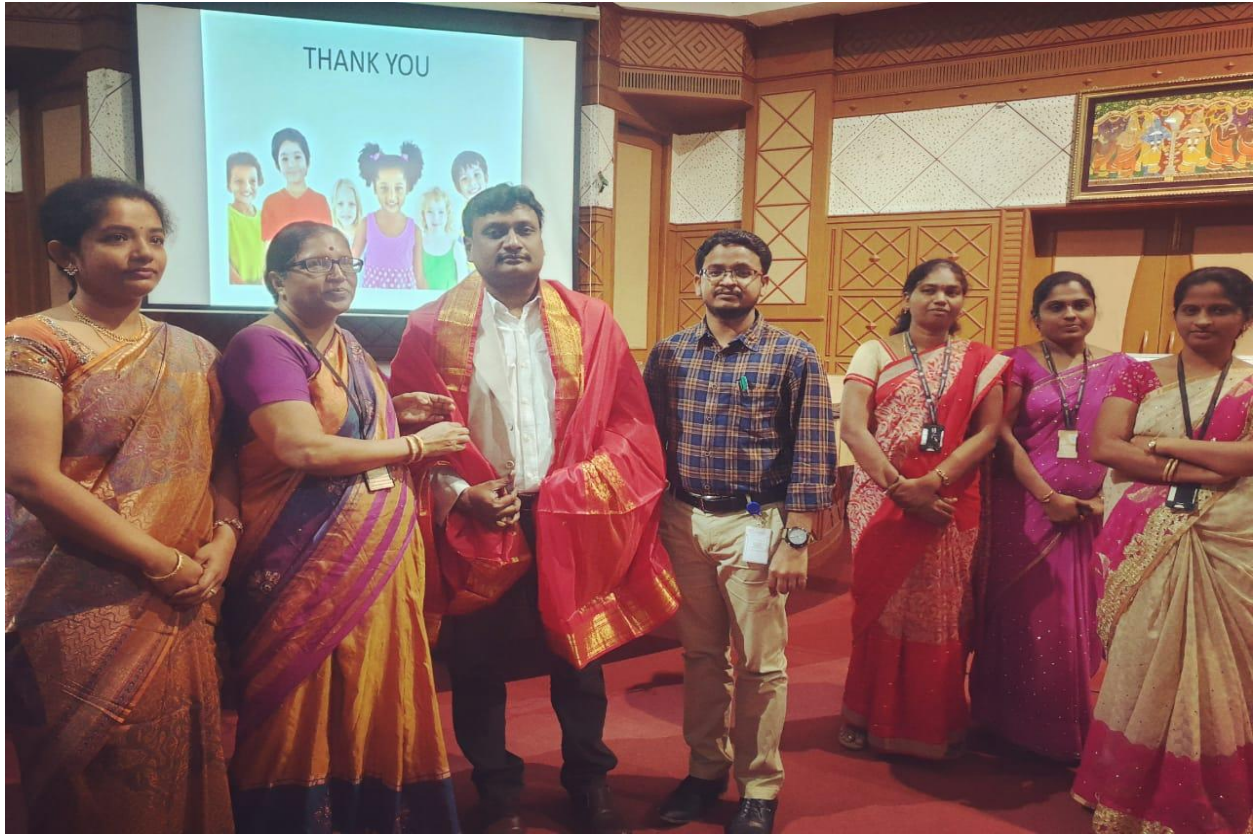

Dr. Sindhura, MD, DG delivering Lecture

Dr. S. Anuradha, principal focused on the key role of a nurse in implementation of health programme like immunization, janani surakshya, new born care and prevention of anaemia among adolescent and antenatal mothers.

Vote of thanks by Dr. S. Anuradha, Principal

Felicitation by Dr. S. Anuradha, Principal, SVCN

The programme adjourned with National Anthem